

We started practice. Our first game was three weeks away. It was tough getting back into shape, but I worked hard and I did it.

Coach said, “Davy, I want you to start in the opener. Do you think you can handle third base?”

I replied, “You bet, I’m ready to play ball. Maybe I’ll even hit one out of the park.”

