

Donald D. Dorfman Research Award

A Comprehensive Cancer
Center Designated by the National Cancer Institute

The Holden Comprehensive Cancer Center will award two prizes for the best research papers in leukemia and lymphoma published in 2007-2008 from the Donald D. Dorfman Endowment. One award will be made to an investigator in the area of basic laboratory research and one to an investigator in the area of clinical research, including population science.

- AWARD This award is granted every other year through the Holden Comprehensive Cancer Center. The amount of each award is $2,500.
A plaque will be presented to the recipients at a recognition event with members of the Dorfman family present.
- CONDITIONS Awards will be granted to one basic and one clinical research publication. Eligible papers are to be published in peer-reviewed journals in 2007 or 2008, or accepted for publication and currently in press.
- ELIGIBILITY Recipients must be members of the Holden Comprehensive Cancer Center. Applicants may submit more than one paper, but each paper will be reviewed individually. Recipients of the Dorfman Award within the past two years are not eligible.
- DEADLINE Deadline for submission of published papers:
Noon, Wednesday, July 29, 2009.
- NOTIFICATION Applicants will be notified of the award and invited to attend a Recognition Event and presentation of an Award Plaque from the Holden Comprehensive Cancer Center and the Dorfman family.
- HOW TO APPLY Applicants should submit a Cover Letter, which identifies the contact person with name, title, address, telephone number and a brief summary describing why you feel the paper is deserving of the award. The summary should include the key issues addressed in the manuscript and a description of the impact of your paper on these issues. Failure to provide the summary and identifying key issues will negatively impact on the review of the manuscript.

Please forward the Cover Letter and seven copies of the paper to:
Holden Cancer Center Administration, 5970 JPP, Attn: Tami Thompson.
